

Jasmine Ser Xiang Wei BBA 2014

National Shooter

National Shooter Jasmine Ser has been a prominent feature of the Singapore shooting scene ever since she won the 2006 Doha Asian Games Team Silver at the age of 16. She continued to grow from strength to strength, winning numerous medals, including multiple gold in the South East Asian Games and Commonwealth Games.

It has been almost a decade since Jasmine took up the sport at the age of 13. Over the past decade, her passion for shooting has translated into more hours of trainings and inspired her to constantly challenge herself to reach for new heights.

Her training schedule was jam-packed - she had to leave for training at Safra Yishun immediately after her classes at NUS and on her free days she trained for 8 hours a day. She is one who does not rest on her laurels and has stayed focus in the pursuit of her dream, juggling well between her rigorous training and her studies.

The stellar performance of Jasmine includes, winning double gold and double silver medals in Shooting and setting two new Games records, in the 10-metre Air Rifle (Singles) event and the 50-metre Rifle 3 Positions (Pairs) event at the Commonwealth Games in Delhi, India, in 2010. She was also a gold medallist at the Southeast Asian Games in 2007 and 2009.

For her outstanding achievements, the NUS Sportswoman of the Year 2010 was also crowned Singapore Sportswoman of the Year in 2011, topping the honours list at the Singapore Sports Awards ceremony that recognizes extraordinary efforts and achievements by Singaporean athletes. In 2012, she was awarded the NUS President Sports Award, the highest honour given to student athletes for their outstanding achievements and dedication to sports.

Upon graduation last year, she was awarded the Sports Excellence Scholarship which allowed her to train full-time to further enhance her skills. At the recent Glasgow Commonwealth Games, the NUS graduate put on a tenacious fight against Scottish home favourite, surviving a thrilling shoot-out at the finals to claim Singapore's fourth gold at the Games in the women's 50m rifle three positions event.
